Tonight's Program

Larry Daniels, who can do just about anything, has been enjoying the variety of challenges posed by reconstituting Alyeska Resort. This evening he will explain some of those issues.

Future Meetings

July 19 Larry Daniels will discuss some of the known plans for our resort and the leadership challenges he expects to face in the years forthcoming.

July 26 John Hakala, U.S. Department of Labor, on Apprenticeship Training. This office along with UAA's Center for Human Development is starting health care apprenticeships next year.

August 2 Carletta Mack, Deputy Director, Covenant House, on the 4,000 plus homeless youth in Anchorage.

August 9 Jennifer Payne, Dowl Engineers, and Dennis Falldorf, Wilder Construction, speaking and showing visuals of the Glenn-Bragaw intersection which will provide a highway overpass

August 16 Tom Morgan, Communities in Schools Executive Director, speaking about the Imagination Library efforts sponsored by Rotary in Alaska

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-A huge cheer for Jeff Demain, Eileen Demain, Jody Liddicoat, John Hickox, and members who helped with the Forest Fair parking, especially our webmaster Ron Burson whose organizational efforts were par excellence on this particularly productive fund raising effort.

-Ellen has made plans to work with out of school young men and women in a class on drawing and model building in a construction skills curriculum David is sponsoring next year. The kids will eventually build a complete house.

-Wilf Wilkinson is the new Rotary International President and his theme for this year is "Rotary Shares"

-Girdwood Rotary is sponsoring one student to the Girdwood Arts Camp.

-Two successful Girdwood Rotary International Projects overseen by former and present Girdwood Rotarians Russ Walker and Tom Yeager
