October is Vocational Month

Tonight's Program

Brad Davis and Barbara Mahoney are biologists working on the Beluga Whale situation in Cook Inlet. Subsistence hunting was suspended for several years, but the population has not responded. Consideration of declaring the species endangered.

Future Meetings

October 4 Barbara Mahoney and Brad Davis of NOAA will explain the situation with our Girdwood Beluga Whales and their population drop. The Lions will join us for this meeting.

October 11 Bob Juliussen, Cook Inlet Housing Authority, on CIHA's efforts to (along with Habitat) replace 8% of the housing stock in Mountain View

October 18 Girdwoodian Cindy Nielsen presents on Rolwing.

October 25 A celebration of our vocational emphasis in Rotary.

November 1 Former Rotarian Ginny Grupp on Yoga to improve both mind and body.

November 10 The Petroleum Profits Tax continues to be analyzed. Lana Johnson has an update on this process for Alaska.

November 29 In celebration of the triumphant effort to restore the Roundhouse, Lana will provide some of the details of the campaign.
