October is Vocational Month

What Programs Would YOU like to have at GR?

Tonight's Program

Rolfing can lead to better physical and emotional health. It is a system of soft tissue manipulation, with the objective of realigning the body structurally and harmonizing its fundamental movement patterns in relation to gravity. Cindy will demonstrate with help from one of our members.

Future Meetings

October 18 Girdwoodian Cindy Nielsen presents on Roling.

October 25 A celebration of our vocational emphasis in Rotary.

November 1 Former Rotarian Ginny Grupp on Yoga to improve both mind and body.

November 8 The Petroleum Profits Tax continues to be analyzed. Lana Johnson has an update on this process for Alaska.

November 15 Girdwood resident Jay Wenger will present on the Centers for Disease Control and their cooperation with Rotary on the eradication of polio plus the work he did in India for 11 years.

November 29 Mike Loso, Alaska Pacific University, on his trek across the glacier field from Girdwood to Eklutna and the retreat of glacial ice in Alaska.

December 6 In celebration of the triumphant effort to restore the Roundhouse, Lana will provide some of the details of the campaign.

December 13 (Tentative) Mike Hawker on the special session and his work on the Girdwood Community Center.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-Mary Rohlfing, Kathleen Madden, and Rotary East welcome us to their AERIE meetings on Wednesdays between 5:30 and 6:30 at the Hooper Bay Café in the Hilton Hotel. On November 7th, the orientation will be on the Rotary Foundation, December 5th on Family Month, and January 9th on Rotary Awareness. AERIE brings basic knowledge of Rotary to new and existing members in an informal setting.

-Jennifer Overcast and Cece are considering service projects. If you have an idea, please let them know.

-Thanksgiving is coming up- Basket packing is probably Saturday, November 17 (ask Cece or Jennifer O.).
